You Gotta Have Heart In Order To Lead

And see, now I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will happen to me there, except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. But none of these things move me; nor do I count my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God. Acts 20:22-24

Who you are, precedes what you do. As Paul spoke to the Ephesians, he described the ingredients of an effective leader. Paul made tough calls, yet shed tears in front of his people. One thing is sure: Leadership begins with the heart. And a leader who can't or won't shed tears, is no leader at all, at least not spiritually.

Paul had a heart that was . . .
Consistent - he lived steadily while moving among them.
Contrite - he acted humbly and willingly showed his weakness.
Courageous - he didn't shrink from doing the right thing.
Convicted - he communicated his convictions boldly.
Committed - he left for Jerusalem, willing to die for Jesus.
Captivated - he showed that a surrendered man doesn't have to survive.

COOKIES FOR SOLDIERS

1st—3rd Grade Wednesday night class has been collecting "spare change" (coins) to support "Cookies for Soldiers". This collection will go thru this Wednesday night, March 13th. The goal is to have enough money to purchase one case of Girl Scout Cookies to send to our Alabama National Guard stationed overseas. If you have any spare change laying around—this class could use it for a good cause! Thank you for your support in helping do something special for those serving our country! See Shelly Painter if you have any questions.

Upcoming Events
