Homeostasis – The Discipleship Killer

There is something in our human nature that likes equilibrium. We don't like disruption. Most of us don't like a lot of change. We like consistency. We like normalcy. We like routine. There are exceptions to this of course but by and large, this is part of human nature.

The fancy word for this is homeostasis – being in the same state.

When the state gets altered there is a fight to revert back to the way things were. When changes happen, something in us often wants to go back to where we were.

This can be true of our weight, of our mental state, and of home life and church life. There are some people who thrive on chaos. If things are calm they get nervous – homeostasis. There are people who were physically abused growing up and sometimes end up abusing their kids – homeostasis.

Our churches haven't made discipling a priority. To do so is change and we resist change. This isn't just a doctrinal thing, it is a psycho-social thing. Not all states are good for us. Some states need to be changed for the better. But it is going to take everything we have to turn certain corners, even when turning those corners are essential to our survival. We often find ourselves resisting the very things we know are required to get better.

Homeostasis.

TEEN UPLIFT SUMMER CAMP

Our youth will be traveling this summer to Harding to engage in a summer camp called UPLIFT. The total cost is $250 (all inclusive).

We would like to give members the opportunity to sponsor a teen for this event. We want all kids to be able to participate and not have to worry about the cost!

If you would love to help by sponsoring a teen to attend, you don't have to specify a child—we will collect all donations to put towards the total cost for everyone to attend. If you want to sign up to help, or if you have any questions, please see Jake or Nicole. Thanks for your support of our teens.
