Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these. Mark 12:30-31

Quiz

Take the time to answer the following questions from memory.

1. Name the ten wealthiest men in the world.
2. Name the last ten Heisman trophy winners.
3. Name the last ten winners of the Miss America contest.
4. Name eight people who have won the Nobel or Pulitzer prize.
5. List the last ten Academy Award winners for best picture or the last decade's worth of World Series winners?

How did you do? I didn't do well either.

Except for the trivia buffs, none of us remember the headliners of yesterday too well. Surprising how quickly we forget, isn't it? And what I've mentioned above are no second-rate achievements. These are the best in their fields. But the applause dies. Awards tarnish. Achievements are forgotten. Accolades and certificates are buried with their owners.

Here's another quiz.

1. Think of three people you enjoy spending time with.
2. Name ten people who have taught you something worthwhile.
3. Name five friends who have helped you in a difficult time.
4. List a few teachers who have aided your journey through school.
5. Name half-a-dozen heroes whose stories have inspired you.

Easier? It was for me, too.

The lesson? The people who make a difference are not the ones with the credentials, but the ones with the concern.
