A Prayer for Fathers

F is for Faith: Help our dads to put their full trust in You, O Lord. Give them an unshakeable faith in Your Word. Strengthen their desire to read it, memorize it, and order their lives according to Your precepts. Remind of Your promise to work all things together for good for those who love You and are called according to Your purpose. Keep them faithful, alert, and standing firm.

A is for Attention: God, help our dads to focus their attention on what truly matters. Teach them to prioritize, to number their days, and to invest their time wisely. Guard them against harmful or ungodly distractions. Give them eyes to see with an eternal perspective. Fix their minds on what is true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, excellent, commendable, and praiseworthy.

T is for Testimony: Make our dads men of integrity. Keep them mindful of the fact that others are watching, particularly the children You have entrusted to their care. Give them a good name and grant them wisdom, discernment, and understanding they need to lead their families well. May everything they do bring honor to You and point others to Jesus.

H is for Health: Lord, keep our dads in good health. Make their bones and muscles strong. Preserve their strength and vitality. Grant them good sleep and give them the rest they need. Help them make good choices in areas that affect their health and either protect them against sickness and disease—or give them grace to endure physical afflictions in a way that glorifies You.

E is for Employment: God, give our dads meaningful work to do and a sense of purpose. Help them enjoy and excel at their jobs. Make them wise stewards of the gifts, skills, talents, opportunities, and money You've entrusted to them. May others be supportive and appreciative of the good work they do.

R is for Relationships: Bless our dads' relationships, Lord. Fortify their family ties. Provide friends who uplift and encourage them. Help them get along with colleagues and coworkers. Most of all, strengthen their relationship with You. Give them a love for Jesus that spills out on everyone they meet. In Your Son's name, Amen
